

Eye on the Sky

Eclipse Speaker Series: Marshall, Missouri

Missouri Valley College
Charles L. Bacon Conference Center

7 p.m. March 6 - Dr. Angela Speck

National Co-Chair of the Total Solar Eclipse Task Force, and Director of Astronomy, Physics & Astronomy Department at MU

7 p.m. April 13 - Fred Espenak

Retired from NASA's Goddard Flight Center, expert in eclipse prediction and astrophotography, aka 'Mr. Eclipse'

7 p.m. May 18 - Val Germann

Two-time chairman of the Mid-States Region of the Astronomical League

8 p.m. June 1 - James Lehr Miller

On the grounds of Common Good, Natural Living, LLC, 3317 S. Odell

An interactive presentation by UFOlogist and expert in night observing and telescope construction, aka 'Starman'

DID YOU KNOW?

- Marshall is in the 'Path of Totality', (2m39s at 1:10pm)
- For Missouri, this is the first total solar eclipse since 1869
- This is the first total solar eclipse to be visible only from the United States since 1776

For more Speaker Series information please visit: MarshallMOSolarEclipse.com

 webcast available on Facebook
MarshallMOSolarEclipse

 WOOD & HUSTON BANK

